Privacy Act Statement: Section 9 of the National School Lunch Act requires that, unless your child’s SNAP, POWER, or FDPIR case number is provided, you must include the last four digits of the social security number of the adult household member signing the application or indicate that the household member does not have a social security number. Provision of a social security number is not mandatory, but if a social security number is not given or an indication is made that the signer does not have such a number, the application cannot be approved. The social security number may be used to identify the household member in carrying out efforts to verify the correctness of information stated on the application. These verification efforts may be carried out through program reviews, audits, and investigations; and may include contacting employers to determine income, contacting a SNAP or Welfare Office or Food Distribution Official to determine current certification for receipt of SNAP, POWER, or FDPIR benefits, contacting the state employment security office to determine the amount of benefits received, and checking the documentation produced by household members to prove the amount of income received. These efforts may result in a loss or reduction of benefits, administrative claims or legal actions if incorrect information is received.
